Honest Taxpayers Who Want to Know Not Convinced by Wild Statements of Antis

The anticipated of the Tulsa County Court was not without some water bonds. The meeting May night had little more than a passing effect for the antis' position easily passed by because most of those present were in favor of the tax which has no charge.

The majority of the citizens present were in strong opposition to the proposition of a bond issue for the waterworks. They were unconvincing that they did not know enough about it to change their minds.
